01 Scope of This Policy

This Privacy Policy covers information collected through the Site, including when you submit a contact or quote request form. It does not cover information we collect through other channels, such as phone calls, in-person visits, or paper correspondence, except where this policy says otherwise.

02 Information We Collect

Information you provide. When you fill out a contact or quote request form, we collect what you enter — for example, your name, company name, email address, phone number, mailing address, and the details of your inquiry.

Information collected automatically. When you browse the Site, our web hosting provider may automatically log basic technical information, such as your IP address, browser and device type, operating system, and the pages you request, for security and to keep the Site running properly. We do not currently use analytics or advertising cookies to track your activity (see Section 4).

We do not knowingly collect payment card numbers, Social Security numbers, or other sensitive personal information through the Site.

03 How We Use Your Information

- Respond to your quote requests and inquiries, and provide customer service

- Operate, maintain, and improve the Site
- Communicate with you about your inquiry or our products and services
- Detect, prevent, and address technical issues, fraud, or misuse
- Comply with legal obligations

04 Cookies & Analytics

We use cookies and similar tracking technologies, including web analytics tools, to understand how visitors use the Site and to help us improve it. These tools may collect information about your device and browsing activity over time, including across other websites, and — if we use them for advertising — may use that information for ad measurement or targeting.

You can control cookies through your browser settings, including blocking or deleting them; doing so may affect how parts of the Site work. Where required, we honor recognized browser opt-out signals such as Global Privacy Control for any tracking that qualifies as a "sale" or "share" of personal information under California law.

05 How We Share Information

We do not sell your personal information for money. We may share information with:

- Service providers who help us run the Site (e.g., hosting, analytics, email delivery), under agreements limiting their use of your information to providing services to us
- Professional advisors, such as our accountants or attorneys, as needed
- Government authorities or others, where required by law or to protect our rights, property, or safety, or that of others
- A successor entity, if we're involved in a merger, acquisition, or sale of assets

06 Data Retention

We retain the information above for as long as needed to respond to your inquiry, maintain our business records, and meet our legal, accounting, or reporting obligations, after which we securely delete or anonymize it.

07 Your Privacy Rights

If you are a California resident, the California Consumer Privacy Act (CCPA), as amended by the California Privacy Rights Act (CPRA), may give you the right to:

- Know what personal information we've collected, used, and disclosed about you
- Request deletion of personal information we hold about you
- Correct inaccurate personal information
- Opt out of the "sale" or "sharing" of personal information, as those terms are defined under California law
- Not be discriminated against for exercising these rights

To exercise any of these rights, contact us using the details in Section 11. We may need to verify your identity before completing your request.

08 Data Security

We use reasonable administrative, technical, and physical safeguards designed to protect information submitted through the Site. No method of transmission or storage is completely secure, and we cannot guarantee absolute security.

09 Children's Privacy

The Site is intended for business and professional audiences and is not directed to children under 13. We do not knowingly collect personal information from children under 13.

10 Changes to This Policy

We may update this Privacy Policy from time to time. The effective date at the top of this page reflects the most recent revision. Material changes will be posted here.
